

Chestnut Hill is the western gateway to Brookline. It has the well-earned reputation of being meticulously groomed. Scenic estates and substantial single family houses, elegant condo developments, Putterham Meadows Golf Course, the County Club, and the Longwood Cricket Club are balanced by a significant concentration of offices and shops. From corner groceries to major supermarkets, from fine clothiers to interior designers, medical offices to assisted living complex, Chestnut Hill embraces a blend of interests. Nearby, you will also find Putterham, an area with a collection of popular restaurants, cafes, bakeries, gift shops, bank and the more.
